

Provide Advanced First Aid

Provide Advanced First Aid develops essential skills and knowledge to provide an advanced first aid response, including life support; and the management of casualties, the incident and other first aiders until the arrival of medical assistance.

This program is suitable for those required to coordinate and manage first aid response across a range of complex situations, including community and workplace settings.

- All programs delivered by experienced paramedics
- High quality first aid workbooks and training aids
- Memorable and original training techniques used
- One manikin (both adult and infant) for every participant

Training options

2 days face-to-face plus study time

- Provide First Aid is incorporated into this unit
- Some pre-course work required
- Detailed hard and soft copy resources
- Delivered by experienced paramedics and nurses

Assessment

- Demonstrate competent CPR on an adult and infant manikin, including bag-valve mask operation
- Participate in 6 first aid scenarios involving multiple casualty incidents and triage
- Apply first aid procedures for a variety of first aid conditions
- Complete a workplace incident report form
- Demonstrate correct use of spinal board and stretcher
- Complete written assessment

Location

- Group training at your place of work, or
- Individuals and groups can come to our training venue

Upon successful completion a Statement of Attainment in HLTAID006 Provide advanced first aid is issued.
RTO 104032